

Scientific workflow: from exported measurements to testable comparisons

Registration is needed for anatomical spatial comparisons; whole-section summaries require comparable sampling and metadata, but no image warping.