

All twelve sections: supported local fractions on a common color scale

Each panel uses its own native coordinates and extent. Panels are not anatomically aligned.
Gray = nonempty but below support; white = no PLA observations. Individual section figures below provide the full-resolution view.